Embattled SP shows unity as Mulayam flags off 'Rath Yatra'

VIRENDRA SINGH RAWAT

Lucknow, 3 November

utting up a united face amid the ongoing and acrimonious power Samajwadi Party (SP) in Uttar Pradesh, party president and patriarch Mulayam Singh Yadav on Thursday flagged off Chief Minister Akhilesh Yadav's much-hyped 'Vikas Rath Yatra'.

Flanked by younger brother Shivpal Singh Yadav, who is locked in a bitter feud with Akhilesh over greater control in the party and government, Mulayam wished success of the Yatra in fetching majority to SP in the 2017 UP polls and retaining power.

However, in his address, Mulayam also struck a note of caution to the vouth party cadres, who are predominantly supporting Akhilesh in the widening fissure in SP, to desist from mere slogan shouting and instead read the socialist movement literature to strengthen the party and understand the struggles behind Samajwadi movement.

Mulayam said SP was a result of sacrifices, struggles and hard work and not slogan shouting. The former defence minister revealed he had advised Akhilesh to name the Yatra as 'Vijay Vikas Rath Yatra' rather than 'Vikas Rath Yatra'. but said his suggestion was not conceded to.

Addressing the huge turnout of SP workers at the La Martiniere College Ground here, Akhilesh claimed his government had fulfilled all the promises made in the party manifesto and ushered in balanced development encompassing the rural and urban

Singh Yadav and party state president Shivpal Yadav at a programme to flag off the Vikas Rath Yatra in Lucknow on Thursday

He said his government had worked for the betterment of all sections of society without discrimination and the people should judge his performance on the basis of the work.

"This election (UP polls) is not only about UP, but for giving direction to national polity," Akhilesh said making oblique reference to the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)led central government as he raked up the issue of an exarmy personnel's suicide allegedly over the One Rank,

Like an astute politician and without taking names, Akhilesh alleged conspiracies with vested interests over the past weeks, that had delayed the party's poll campaign. However, he exuded confier with absolute majority as in

This is the party's fourth Rath Yatra in its about 25 years of existence, of which Akhilesh had led three, while one was

Putting to rest the speculation whether Akhilesh would participate in the silver jubilee foundation day function slated for November 5 here, the CM confirmed he would be a part and urged the youth cadres to make both the programmes

Meanwhile, Akhilesh's Rath developed a technical snag soon after the Yatra had entered the 23-km long Shaheed Path for its journey from Lucknow to Unnao, forcing the CM to continue the journey in his accompanying Earlier, Shivpal also wished Akhilesh success in his Rath Yatra, saving he hoped it would help the party's aim of stopping BJP from coming to power in in the state.

The Yatra, which marks the blowing of the poll bugle by Akhilesh, is a mass contact programme to propagate his development projects and schemes

It has been organised at a time, when SP is also trying to sew an alliance with 'like minded' parties to keep BJP

The Yatra is being managed by Akhilesh's close confidante and member of legislative council Sunil Yadav Sajan from newly inaugurated Janeshwar Mishra Trust, which is the 'war room' of the CM for the forthcoming polls.
